“ Buena once led a Vacation Bible School class at the Villa Rica Methodist Church on how to catch and chloroform butterflies --it was great fun for all of us. Helen and I were fortunate to talk with Buena just a couple of years ago in Carrollton at a birthday celebration for Annie Ruth Powell-- she was radiant and filled with joy. As the Bible says "the memory of the righteous is a blessing indeed" and her memories will be a future blessing for her family and all those who knew her.

“ As I drive to work each day across the marshes of Coastal Georgia, I see the world through a painter's eye and I thank Beuna Taylor for that gift. She was a great teacher who inspired a love of art in my life. She will be missed. - Nancy Paris Butler
