“ I have known Bea since middle school and all through the years stayed friends cause no one could not like her she was an AWESOME person , always had a smile and kind heart. Then we married into same family ,even tho we lost touch for a while upon seeing her again years later she hadn't changed still just as kind as she always was ...i am sorry for your loss ,I know Bea will be missed by her family & friends .Bea was a Blessing to everyone that was lucky enough to be part of her life.

“ Mom i will never be able to express how much i truly miss you. You always made me smile and laugh even on my hardest days. I know we didnt get along 100% of the time but thats just what families do sometimes. You always told me how much you loved me and excepted me for who i was. I knew i could always come to you about anything and you always listened and gave me advice. We shared so many laughs and memories these past 7 years and i only wish there could be more. I couldnt have asked for a better mother in law. I love you so much, more than you or anyone will ever know. Fly high sweet angel.....

“ Aunt Bea always had a smile on her face and a natural way of always making you feel comfortable in her presence. She always made others laugh and smile just by being her cheerful self.

“ Bea, You always kept a smile on your face and would light up the room when you entered it. Love you Cuz.... you will be missed so much, i know we didn't see or talk to each other on a regular basis, but you always told me life kept us all busy , that wasn't an excuse it was just the way life was. I won't forget the day you and Sandy wanted to take me to lunch to O'Charleys after my knee surgery. We laughed and had shared some things that day. You remember the day when Carter called you and i didn't know it, you called me back and said, "did you call"? we laughed when we realized it was him .Your smile that Carter put on your face that day in the hospital when he blew you a kiss i won;t forget that. I love you Bea, you are in no more pain R.I.P. sweet girl Love you
