“ MIMI, I loved you like you were my mom. Well let me say this again. YOU were a mom to me. You helped me grow. You showed me the kind of person I wanted to be. You were kind and had a big heart. But didn't let no one push you around. I will see you again one day. Love and miss you. RIP MIMI.

“ Aunt Emma was one who always made you feel good, she would give you a big hug, and squeeze real tight. I was so sad when they moved from Ohio to Georgia, I felt like I lost part of my family. Kelly and I were so close when we were very young. I thought of Debbie and Bill also as siblings during the time that they lived in Ohio. I am so sorry for your loss, and I believe that heaven gained an angel.

“ My favorite memory of mimi was a few years ago. We were getting ready to go to the store and she told me I had a spot on my face that needed to be washed off. So we went into the bathroom and she was washing the spot off and said oh wait, that's a freckle. And busted out laughing. I will never forget that. I love you mimi. Rest in peace.

“ My heart goes out to the Stecher and Glagola Family... Saying "Goodbye", is the hardest thing, but knowing Emma, she lived a wonderful life and passed away smiling. She was the most thoughtful and sweetest lady, but oh boy, you would never want to get on her bad side, cause she sure would let you know it and everyone else!! She could hold a grudge for awhile , but then , just like that, forget all about it. I will truly miss all the dinners at the Stecher household with her and sitting on the front porch in the swing, just her and I and we would just talk about anything and everything and EVERYONE! lol I have to laugh though, as she always remembered mine and Rick's name but when it came to just about ALL the kids, she would forget who was who and just called them by OUR children's names, as if they never grew up.. Debbie and I would just chuckle about that. She was such a caring, loving and strong lady and will truly be missed, but she went smiling to someone she wanted to see up above besides the Lord God. Now you may Rest In Peace, Ms. Emma , as my parents are as well.

With love to you always, Gail Stecher London-Nelson
