“ I am deeply saddened with this news. I was hoping to reconnect after too long a hiatus. Bridgette and I think much of you two. Joy bless you and keep you. After several years, Bridgette and I are back together and are getting married. We both miss you and Herschel and talk of you often. Herschel's an incredible man and the Lord is proud to have him in his choir as I am blessed for having know him. Hope this message finds you well. God Bless you both. With all our love,

“ I would like to offer my condolences to Freeman family and also share a comforting promise from God's word at Revelation 21:3-4 which says:With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say:Look the tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.

“ I am very thankful that I had the opportunity to get to know Herschel and Joy. They both welcomed me into their home and I enjoyed my visits with them. I feel very blessed,honored, and privileged to have been Herschel's nurse and that he and Joy trusted me and allowed me to do so. Herschel was a fighter and he was always honest and true to his character. Joy, I am so sorry for your loss. You have become a friend for life and for that I am truly grateful! You went above and beyond while caring for Herschel and he was lucky to have you! There are very few patients who I call my favorite or that tug at my heartstrings and I get attached to. But Herschel was definitely one of them. My deepest sympathies to Joy and the family.

“ I have many questions for you that are left unanswered, you can answer them for me when I see you again in heaven. I know that you are happy now and you are with your mom and dad and son. I know you aren't in pain anymore. I love you and i miss you but i will see you again one day. Love, Allison
