“ I will definitely miss my Aunt Joyce. She was such a kind, warm and caring person who always had a smile on her face. I will always remember how her laughter filled the air during our family Thanksgiving and Christmas gatherings. May she rest in peace and be forever happy in Heaven with my Uncle Fred and their sweet daughter, Jenny.

My thoughts and prayers continue to be with her family. All my love,
Abigail Brewer

“ Joyce was dedicated to her husband Fred, to her children and grandchildren, and to the rest of her family. She was a quiet individual with a dry wit about her. Joyce enjoyed listening to her husband Fred, her Brother in Law Andy and her nephew Art talk about and plan their big camping trips and the shopping trips it took for these guys to try to outdo each other with the latest and greatest gadgets.

I admired so many things about Joyce. Joyce's work ethic, her attitude and many other characteristics. It did not take much to make Joyce happy. I smile to myself when I imagine her and I covering our mouth to stifling a giggle at some of things that our family did. She was a sweet Sister-In-Law and I will miss her and think of her often -

Until I see her again.

Love, Peace and Comfort to my family.

“ Joyce was a devoted mother and wife. What impressed me the most was that she was an excellent seamstress. She could sew better than anybody I have ever known; she could also alter a pattern and produce a top quality result. I couldn't believe she tackled making Kathy's wedding dress, but how beautiful it turned out! She will certainly be missed, but she will be warmly remembered. Much love to her family.

“ I will not forget my Aunt Joyce for many reasons: The way she always greeted my presence with a smile, the way she laughed and shook her head when my father and I would talk of our camping excursions with her husband, and of course, how she once caught me pulling my sisters hair and really let me have it! I take great comfort in knowing that she is once more with Fred and Jenny, and look forward to her greeting my presence with a smile when we meet again.
My love and condolences to all of her family,

“ For her steadfast love and devotion to my brother and to her children, I will always honor the memory of my sister-in-law, Joyce. May she ever rest in peace near her treasured daughter Jenny and husband Fred. I will miss her innate kindness, her generous heart, and her humor.
With love to the rest of her family, especially Joe and Kathy,
Andy Brewer
