“ I am very saddened by the sudden loss of my friend and co-worker of 13 years. We shared some funny times Judi (flamingo, stories...) and many challenging times (moves, reorganizations...) at the office. Through the good and the bad, you always remained Judi and I am going to miss you!

To the family - I hope you all find comfort in knowing that you all were Judi's world and she loved each and every one of you very much. Almost daily she would share a story about her family and share so many pictures.

This story below was shared with me when my dad passed away. I hope it brings as much comfort to you all as it did and still does to me. I haven't looked at a dragonfly the same since.

Dragonfly

Once, in a little pond, in the muddy water under the lily pads, there lived a little water beetle in a community of water beetles. They lived a simple and comfortable life in the pond with few disturbances and interruptions. Once in a while, sadness would come to the community when one of their fellow beetles would climb the stem of a lily pad and would never be seen again. They knew when this happened; their friend was dead, gone forever.

Then, one day, one little water beetle felt an irresistible urge to climb up that stem. However, he was determined that he would not leave forever. He would come back and tell his friends what he had found at the top. When he reached the top and climbed out of the water onto the surface of the lily pad, he was so tired, and the sun felt so warm, that he decided he must take a nap. As he slept, his body changed and when he woke up, he had turned into a beautiful blue-tailed dragonfly with broad wings and a slender body designed for flying.

So, fly he did! And, as he soared he saw the beauty of a whole new world and a far superior way of life to what he had never known existed. Then he remembered his beetle friends and how they were thinking by now he was dead. He wanted to go back to tell them, and explain to them that he was now more alive than he had ever been before. His life had been fulfilled rather than ended. But, his new body would not go down into the water. He could not get back to tell his friends the good news. Then he understood that their time would come, when they, too, would know what he now knew. So, he raised his wings and flew off into his joyous new life!

Much love to you all and Judi may you be feeling more alive than ever before!

“ In God's care you rest above, in our hearts you rest with love.
Memories of you are ours to keep,
Our words are few but our love is deep. (Author Unknown)

'Judes'---you made more of an impact in my life than most people will ever know. My comfort comes from believing that you truly knew how much you meant to me...to all of us! I miss you. I love you. Rest well, my friend.
