“ Lura was in my first grade class. She looked like a Victorian valentine angel on a candy box. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ To Lura's family, I am so sorry for your loss. My heart breaks for you, but I know that Lura is up in heaven. You will be in my thoughts and prayers. Please know that we all loved Lura so very much and will miss her, but all of this life is in God's timing, He tells us in His word that we know not the day or the hour. I know your sorrow, for I to have lost loved ones that left this world long before I was ready for them to leave, but with God's help and the love of your family and friends you to can make this journey until God calls you home to be with Lura. There will be days that it will not be easy, just please know that God is always with you, He is just a prayer away. I pray that you will let God comfort you as you face the next few days and for days to come.

Lura and I were not close friends, but we were in choir together and I had the privilege of working with her in the kitchen. She always had a smile for everyone and was always willing to do whatever she could to help. When the news of Lura's heart attack came to us, I asked all my friends on Facebook to please pray for her and I posted that she was one of God's angels that He let live on His earth.

I could not find this web site yesterday, below is the tribute that I posted on my Facebook page in honor and in memory of Lura.

This is my tribute to Lura Webb. I know without a doubt that Jesus took her by the hand and said "Welcome Home thy good and faithful servant".

In Honor and in Memory of Lura Webb - I clicked on my facebook page a few minutes ago to check and see if there was any word regarding Lura and there was the message that Lura is now in Heaven with her precious Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. As I sat here, I kept trying to think what can I post about Lura that will make all of you who did not have the privilege of knowing this very special person that we at New Georgia Baptist Church had the privilege of knowing and being a friend and loving her and feeling the love that she had for all of us. When I posted this morning I wrote that she was one of God's Angels that He let live here on His earth. Because I am a lover of music and especially Hymns I look to music to help me. I kept searching my mind and looked on You Tube trying to find something that would relate to Lura. I thought about "Angels Among Us" and she definitely was that, but then an old Hymn that we used to sing when I was a child came to my mind. This song could have been written about Lura. The name of the song is "Others" written by C. D. Meigs in 1917.

Lord, help me live from day today. In such a self - forgetful way That even when I kneel to pray My prayer shall be for-- Others.

Help me in all the work I do To ever be sincere and true, And know that all I'd do for you Must needs be done for --Others.

Let "Self" be crucified and slain And buried deep: and all in vain May efforts be to rise again, Unless to live for --Others.

And when my work on earth is done. And my new work in heaven's begun. May I forget the crown I've won. While thinking still of --Others.

Others, Lord yes, others, Let this my motto be, Help be to live for others, That I may live like Thee.

The above song reflects how Lura lived her life everyday.

May God Bless all of you and comfort you as you say good bye and celebrate her life.

“ Lura was such a wonderful friend to me. She made me laugh, she shared my hurts, she loved me, she showed me how to live out godliness. Her fingerprints are all over our church...the choir, Bible Study class, the library, the kitchen, administrative offices, etc. How sad for us that we no longer have her, but how I rejoice for my dear sister in Christ that she is now in the presence of Jesus. She lived her life as a beautiful example of one whose hope was in Christ and now that faith has become reality for her forever and forever. Praise God whose promises are true and thank you Lura for the example you lived out before us all. My deepest condolences to her family. May you find peace and comfort from the One who can provide you true peace.

“ My deepest sympathies to Lura's family and to all the people she has touched. There are no words to express what she meant to me and my family. It has been a year this month that my mom passed away and Lura was so dear to her! Lura brought her candy last Valentine's day and sat and spent time with her. Lura truly epitomized a godly woman. She left her finger prints on so many in her quite, unassuming, humble, loving way. We have the assurance that she is rejoicing with the angels in heaven!

“ I worked with Lura at the bank, She was nice and kind. She was a true treasure of a human being with a great sense of humor. I would like to express my deepest condolences to her family. My God bless and keep them.

“ I worked with Lura for many years at the bank. One thing you could always count on from Lura, was a smile that would light up the room. Her kindness was contagious and her love was overflowing. You can't fake something you don't have and it was evident that Lura had Jesus living in her heart. To all those that loved Lura, it should be comforting to know that all is well with her soul.

“ I remember once when Lura approached me saying, "why are you always so happy and friendly?". My answer to her was, "because I have such awesome friends, just like you, lura". My life has been blessed by knowing her. I will be praying for the family.

“ Lura had such a sweet, gentle & humble spirit. She was so faithful and devoted with a real servant's heart. I will miss singing with her in choir and studying God's Word together in Precept, but what joy knowing she is singing our Lord's praises in person in Heaven now! She was loved and will be missed. My sincere sympathy to her family.

“ It was easy to like Lura when we met a few years ago. She had the same name as an aunt of mine, we attended the same high school for awhile and her sister and I share the same name- Connie. We also loved our Lord, but when it came to Bible study and deep knowledge of the Word, she left me in the dust!! I will miss her in so many places she served at our church, but she is gloriously restored and healed now. Our Lord sends people into our lives that he knows we need and want as dear friends. I am so grateful He gave us Lura and treasure the time I had with her.

“ I was fortunate to get to know Lura at NGBC and to call her my friend. I'll miss seeing her smiling face on Sunday mornings as she sang with our choir. But, now she's singing in the choir with the other Angles in front of God.

Rachel Swafford - February 15, 2013 at 12:14 PM

“ Ms. Lura's life on this earth was a beautiful picture of God's Word lived out. Her heart was that of a servant, and her willingness to put herself aside was apparent in everything she did. I'm so thankful for the time spent with her, but so happy to know that as I write this, she's healed and singing praises to our God!

“ Lura was such a special person from the inside out. Her heart was so full of love and she spread that love in everything she did. She will truly be missed but knowing where she is brings me such peace. I can only imagine the joy of now being at the side of our Lord and Savior. I pray for her family as they go through the loss of such a special family member.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Our loss is Heaven's gain. Lura was one of the most godly and wise women I have ever known. She had the ability to know what to say ~ and when to say it. She has been vulnerable and transparent to all. She was such a giver. She has been willing to be the vessel that God uses in SO many situations. I will truly miss her and her friendship. How blessed you are to call her "family".
