“ I am sorry to hear about Ms.Ola. May the God of all comfort be with you. I found the thought in John 11th chapter to bring great comfort. In this scripture Jesus likens death to sleep, at the end of the chapter he brings his friend back to life. In the near future, we can welcome back all our love ones in the resurrection.(John 5:28,29)

“ Dear Aunt Ola, what can I say, you were my daddy's twin sister you can't get much closer than that, so in some ways you were our Mr. Mom. Though distance and circumstances keep us apart you were and will always be in my heart. The one memory that really stands out is when me, you and momma went up in your attic and going threw all the fun treasures you had. I don't think I have ever seen that much stuff. It was so fun. I love you and you will be missed by so many. Give my mom and dad a hig hug and kiss. Goodbye Aunt Ola.

“ Aunt Ola, I shall forever be grateful to have been blessed with you in my life. The joy, laughter, love, and your unique way of looking at life was always a blessing you shared generously with all in our amazing family. I know you will live on in the hearts of each person you have touched. Through my tears, I can't help but smile to know the happiness you will be sharing with the family you are reunited with tonight.

Rest in peace. I love you, Jane
