His Journey’s Just Begun

Don’t think of him as gone away his journey’s just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.

“ HAPPY 56th BIRTHDAY Randy!! I miss you so much. I wish you were still here, but, I know you are in a better place. You won't be calling me tonight, so I will just tell you here , that I will miss those cherished phone calls from you. Every year on your Birthday, I will dial your old phone and say Happy Birthday as I hang up, as I know someone else will have your number by then.....

CeLinda (Cindy) Young - October 20, 2016 at 05:16 AM

“ My Brother, my friend, a part of my heart always...your 56th birthday is coming up in a just a few short days, as is my 60th birthday. You always called me on your birthday (Oct 20th) to wish me happy birthday, you never missed a year. This year there will be no phone call from you, no " Happy Birthday Sis " , no " Hiya Brat ". You were the BEST Birthday GIFT that I was ever given! I used to joke about getting you for my 4th birthday that you were the worst gift I got, but that isn't, you were absolutely the BEST GIFT! I am so sad and heart broken that I will never hear your voice, see your face, or get a bear hug from you ever again. I have not let myself cry or grieve your passing, I am afraid that in the coming days that the grief and sadness that I have been holding in is going to break loose and the flood gates will be opened. I wish I could get that call from you this year just to let me know you are finally at peace, Oh that would be so wonderful! My Brother, you will always be in my heart. So, Happy 56th Birthday! I love and miss you so much.

“ It is almost 12 midnight. I woke up crying, literally sobbing tonight. I felt so empty, so alone. Long buried memories came flooding back into my mind. I saw back into time when Randy was just a lil fella, when we lived in Whitehouse/Swanton Ohio. I saw him with his little beagle gal, Jana-Ran (that was what he named her) his first beagle. She had been outside in the freezing rain all night. Randy found her and told Marye about her, Marye being the kind spirit she is has always been to all animals, wrapped Jana-Ran inside a bath towel and took her in front of the wall heater vent, trying to thaw her out. Randy stood by tears streaming down his face as Marye rubbed and massaged Jana-Ran trying to revive her. I didn't know it then but, I was witnessing the pure true love that my baby brother had for his first beagle friend. Marye did save Jana-Ran, but later on Jana-Ran died from cancer on her hind leg. How my brothers heart broke. More memories are flooding back of my brother, how he would disappear from morning until evening in the long summer days in Holland, Ohio. How he would get a tupperware glass of milk and pour half the glass with sugar and then drink it, leaving at least 3 inches of sugar in the bottom of it when he was done. There are more that I had forgotten for so long, that have come racing back. I can smile through my tears knowing that Randy will never ever feel the loss of another beagle friend, that he will always be drinking sugar milk. That he will no longer be in any pain. But OH how my heart hurts knowing I will never see his smiling blue eyes again or hear him say "Hey Brat!" or " I love you sis!" I love you so much Randy and I miss you so much.
