“ Gail&family:I'm sorry and saddened by the note from you today, announcing Ronnie's passing.

My prayers and thoughts with the family as you grieve. I,too, grieve along with you. Ronnie did so much for my family when we shared a room at the health care facility in Dallas.

May GOD bless and comfort you all!

“ Ashley,
I am so so so sorry for your loss. Just take comfort that he is no longer in pain and now in our fathers house. I'm here if you need me. I love you so much and again I am so so sorry.

Love

“ Ashley,
We were so sorry to hear about your Dad. Please accept our deepest sympathy during this trying time. You know that we are here for you, Daniel, and the boys. If you need anything just let us know. We probably won't make it to the visitation tonight but, hopefully we will make the funeral service tomorrow.

May God keep you in His arms, and comfort you!

We Love You!

“ While Uncle Ronnie may no longer be with us in physical body, his spiritual soul now reigns. He has been called and given his "gift"; Everlasting Peace!

Aunt Gail, you have been an angel in Uncle Ronnie's life. We are all so very blessed for your selfless acts of kindness.

Love,

Michael

“ I don't even know where to start other than Ronnie was an amazing person, one who even during his illness kept fighting. He was a trooper no matter what came his way. He will be missed dearly by many many people - especially by "Banna" - He loved her like no other and she loved him the same. I will always remember a story that was told to me by my father (Bobby Milam) about Ronnie and "Banna" - Right after Breanna was born Ronnie and Jimmy Kirk were at the legion and Ronnie just as happy as a pig in a blanket had a picture of his 1st grand daughter "Banna" he called her. Of Course he had to show her photo to everyone so it came time to show the photo to Jimmy and Jimmy thought he would just have some fun with Ronnie so he told Ronnie that was the ugliest baby he had ever seen. As you can imagine Ronnie did not take that too kindly! Ronnie was always protective over Breanna - she could do no wrong in his eyes. He will be in our hearts forever - We Love You! Dawn, Tom, and Breanna
