“ I would like to send my condolences to Virginia's family. May the God of all comfort be with you. May you find comfort in God's promise found in Revelation 21:4 "God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more. Neither will there be anymore mourning, nor outcry, nor pain. The former things have passed away."

“ Aunt Virginia was a special lady. She had an indomitable spirit, a great sense of humor and never was afraid to speak her mind. I have many fond memories of time spent in her company as a child and as an adult. I still have some of the pottery she made me as gifts. A long life well lived. Rest in peace, Aunt Virginia. May the memories of the good times comfort you Judy and Keith.

Love
Susan
