“ Every year on Halloween we would always bang on his door after he told us not to cause he wouldn't have any candy. He always held up to that and never answered the door or even made a sound all those nights we knocked and begged for candy. He did finally give in to bringing us a big bag of candy to Mawmaw's house every year. I love you Uncle Wayne. You will be missed.

“ Uncle Wayne you are the big brother that I never had, you lived with us for a large part of my childhood and teenage years. When you were away at "College", my Sundays were spent with you there! One memory is hard to write when we have had a lifetime of them together! So here is my best attempt.

I remember Friday nights you coming in from work and throwing your clothes at me to iron for you so you could get ready for your weekends away. I remember you popping me when I was doing things I should not. I remember you eating Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner off of Grannie's big turkey platter. I remember you standing on the bed, while Darin had a hammer to hit the mouse that liked your belongings (stash). I remember your hair as long as mine. I remember you and Jamie living with us and picking on me all the time. I remember you coming upstairs with your life jacket on the many times the basement flooded. I remember all of us working to get mom's store open. I remember when you bought the house from the Dickinson's. I remember all of the family gatherings with and without you.

I know that you are no longer in pain. I know that you are reunited with Granny, papa Darnell, Jerry, Brenda, KW, Shirley, Sharon, and Debbie for the holidays. I know that you will always be in our hearts and memories.

I have loved you all my life and will always love you!

“ Uncle Wayne and I shared so many great memories. I think the best times to me was when I was a little guy. Me and Uncle Wayne would load up in his car and just go for a ride when he came home from work. Yes, I remember that far back!! We got in lots of trouble with mom together way back then and I enjoyed every minute. We all have our memories, probably mostly all great memories to hold on to forever! Uncle Wayne, you have a special place in so many hearts. Uncle Wayne was always a "kids guy". You will be forever missed, but never forgotten. Darin

“ I'm not exactly sure what year it was but I had a friend over to spend the night (Michelle Jordan), and we all were wrestling around and Wayne tried to put Red Man in my mouth and I wouldn't let him. So, he said either let me put the Red Man in your mouth or I'm putting your head in the in the toilet. We wrestled around for awhile and then finally he picked me up by ankles and carried me straight to the bathroom and as hard as I tried to prevent it my head ended up in the toilet. My mom and my friend Michelle got a big kick out of it but I personally didn't find it to funny. Wayne was a 2nd Dad to me and I loved him very much. He will be greatly missed by myself and my family. I LOVE YOU UNCLE WAYNE!! AKA Good Buddy.. Love Onnie Gale
